

EMPLOYEE AND VOLUNTEER COMPUTER AND INTERNET USE RULES

The intent of these Board-level rules is to provide employees and volunteers with general requirements for utilizing the school's computers, networks and Internet services. The Board rules may be supplemented by more specific administrative procedures and rules governing day-to-day management and operation of the computer system.

These rules provide general guidelines and examples of prohibited uses for illustrative purposes but do not attempt to state all required or prohibited activities by users.

Failure to comply with Board policy GCSA, these rules and/or other established procedures or rules governing computer use may result in disciplinary action, up to and including discharge. Illegal uses of the school's computers will also result in referral to law enforcement authorities.

A. Access to School Computers, Networks and Internet Services

The level of access that employees/volunteers have to school computers, networks and Internet services is based upon specific employee/volunteer job requirements and needs.

B. Acceptable Use

Employee/volunteer access to the school's computers, networks and Internet services is provided for administrative, educational, communication and research purposes consistent with the school's educational mission, curriculum and instructional goals. General rules and expectations for professional behavior and communication apply to use of the school's computers, networks and Internet services.

Employees/volunteers are to utilize the school's computers, networks and Internet services for school-related purposes and performance of job duties. Incidental personal use of school computers is permitted as long as such use does not interfere with the employee's/volunteer's job duties and performance, with system operations or other system users. "Incidental personal use" is defined as use by an individual employee/volunteer for occasional personal communications. Employees/volunteers are reminded that such personal use must comply with this policy and all other applicable policies, procedures and rules.

C. Prohibited Use

The employee/volunteer is responsible for his/her actions and activities involving school computers, networks and Internet services and for his/her computer files, passwords and accounts. General examples of unacceptable uses that are expressly prohibited include but are not limited to the following:

1. Any use that is illegal or in violation of other Board policies, including harassing, discriminatory or threatening communications and behavior, violations of copyright laws, etc.;

2. Any use involving materials that are obscene, pornographic, sexually explicit or sexually suggestive;
3. Any inappropriate communications with students or minors;
4. Any use for private financial gain, or commercial, advertising or solicitation purposes;
5. Any use as a forum for communicating by e-mail or any other medium with other school users or outside parties to solicit, proselytize, advocate or communicate the views of an individual or non-school-sponsored organization; to solicit membership in or support of any non-school-sponsored organization; or to raise funds for any non-school-sponsored purpose, whether for-profit or not-for-profit. No employee/volunteer shall knowingly provide school e-mail addresses to outside parties whose intent is to communicate with school employees, students and/or their families for non-school purposes. Employees and volunteers who are uncertain as to whether particular activities are acceptable should seek further guidance from the building principal or other appropriate administrator.
6. Any communication that represents personal views as those of the school or that could be misinterpreted as such;
7. Opening or forwarding any e-mail attachments (executable files) from unknown sources and/or that may contain viruses;
8. Any malicious use or disruption of the school's computers, networks and Internet services or breach of security features;
9. Any misuse or damage to the school's computer equipment;
10. Misuse of the computer passwords or accounts (employee or other users);
11. Any communications that are in violation of generally accepted rules of network etiquette and/or professional conduct;
12. Any attempt to access unauthorized sites;
13. Failing to report a known breach of computer security to the system administrator;
14. Using school computers, networks and Internet services after such access has been denied or revoked; and
15. Any attempt to delete, erase or otherwise conceal any information stored on a school computer that violates these rules.

D. No Expectation of Privacy

The school retains control, custody and supervision of all computers, networks and Internet services owned or leased by the school. The school reserves the right to monitor all computer and Internet activity by employees, volunteers and other system users. Employees and volunteers have no expectation of privacy in their use of school computers, including e-mail messages and stored files. The use of personal laptops on the school's network may be monitored by the school.

E. Confidentiality of Information

Employees/volunteers are expected to use appropriate judgment and caution in communications concerning students and staff to ensure that personally identifiable information remains confidential.

F. Staff Responsibilities to Students

Teachers, staff members and volunteers who utilize school computers for instructional purposes with students have a duty of care to supervise such use. Teachers, staff members and volunteers are expected to be familiar with the school's policies and rules concerning student computer and Internet use and to enforce them. When, in the course of their duties, employees/volunteers become aware of student violations, they are expected to stop the activity and inform the building principal.

G. Compensation for Losses, Costs and/or Damages

The employee/volunteer shall be responsible for any losses, costs or damages incurred by the school related to violations of policy GCSA and/or these rules.

H. School Assumes No Responsibility for Unauthorized Charges, Costs or Illegal Use

The school assumes no responsibility for any unauthorized charges made by employees/volunteers including but not limited to credit card charges, subscriptions, long distance telephone charges, equipment and line costs, or for any illegal use of its computers such as copyright violations.

I. Employee/Volunteer Acknowledgment Required

Each employee/volunteer authorized to access the school's computers, networks and Internet services is required to sign an acknowledgment form (GCSA-E) stating that they have read policy GCSA and these rules. The acknowledgment form will be retained in the employee's personnel file.
